

GREAT BEAR RAINFOREST

Arrival and Departure Information

Aboard S/V Island Odyssey
Start and Finish - Bella Bella
2013

This natural history voyage explores the protected waters of the north central coast of British Columbia – an area known as the ‘Great Bear Rainforest’. Conservationists have been actively working to protect this area as it contains the largest remaining untouched temperate rainforest on the Pacific Coast. It is home to many animals such as grizzly bears, wolves, humpback whales, and the elusive, all-white Spirit Bear. In 2006, the British Columbia government announced the protection of an additional 20% of the Great Bear Rainforest. We go ashore to explore each day - on the lookout for wildlife. At sea, we keep a sharp eye out for whales and other marine mammals as we travel the fiords below towering rock faces and rushing waterfalls. The Tsimshian and Heiltsuk First Nations people have lived in the area for thousands of years and we will learn about their culture and how important this remote and pristine wilderness is to them and their future generations.

SAMPLE ITINERARY

On all of our voyages we intentionally keep our itineraries flexible to take advantage of wildlife sightings, weather and tides, and the interests of the group.

Arrival into Bella Bella

Upon arriving at the Bella Bella Airport, collect your luggage and look for Starr Shuttle. They will be notified of your arrival and a driver will be there to meet your flight to transport you to your accommodation of choice.

Shuttle fees to and from the Bella Bella Municipal Dock are included in your trip fees. Any transportation beyond this service is the responsibility of the guest. Please remember to mention to the driver that you are a Bluewater guest.

Trip Start - Day 1

Participants will meet at the top of the Municipal Dock at 11:00am on the Bella Bella waterfront. Upon boarding the ship you will meet the crew, cabins will be assigned, and everyone will participate in an introductory & safety orientation. Once these few details have been looked after, we set sail into the Great Bear Rainforest. Each night we will anchor in a different, secluded anchorage.

Days 2-3:

We now head deep into the coastal mountains and will focus the next two days on a large marine park called the Fiordland Conservancy. Here you will see has some spectacular rock faces and impressive waterfalls. We will explore remote estuaries and expect to see bears attracted by the spawning salmon. We may visit the native village of Klemtu to see the new longhouse that was recently built by the local community.

Days 4-7:

We travel along the shore of Princess Royal Island – the best known area for seeing the rare Spirit or Kermode bear. These bears are black bears expressing a genetic variation that results in about ten percent of the population in this area being all white. We will visit creeks and river estuaries and keep an eye out along the shore as we travel. Khutze Inlet has a beautiful river valley, an abundance of birdlife and we may see bears along the shore. We are fortunate to spend 2 days with local Tsimshian Native guides who will take us to their favourite wildlife viewing areas where we will get one of our best chances to spot the elusive Spirit bear.

In Whale Channel we expect to see humpback whales and will take the time to observe these amazing, 15 metre-long creatures, whenever the opportunity arises. In open Principe Channel, we hope for a good wind to set the sails and have one of our best sails of the voyage!

There will be time to explore the protected waters using our stable sea-kayaks that we have available. During our daily shore excursions, our onboard naturalist will help identify different coastal plants and interested participants can help keep a species list for the trip. With a good low tide, we may explore the shoreline for different species of colourful sea stars, anemone

Trip Finish - Day 8

We arrive mid morning in Bella Bella in time to catch the Pacific Coastal flight departing early afternoon from Bella Bella.
